“ One of the things Tom and I loved about Dad was when he would grin ear to ear & giggle.
Like the time - Tom was in the passenger seat of Dad's 70 SS Chevrolet & Dad at the wheel w/ Mom & I in the back seat.
A young Whipper Snapper pulled up along side of Dad @a red light - wanting to race - Dad says "Hold on were gonna teach this kid a lesson" Grinning ear to ear & giggling.
When the light turned green Dad smoked that kid & when he arrived at the next light - the young 'Whipper Snapper' was joining Dad with his own grin and giggles.
Dad made a connection w/ that young man.
As he did w/ all he came in contact w/ - whether it was before Church started and he would make his rounds- or @ the Paper Mill in greeting every employee - shaking hands & thanking every man & woman that has or is serving our Country.

So another thing I love about my Dad is that he connected w/ people.
Let's continue this on in memory of one really, great man!
I Love you, Dad!

“ And his hugs, I don't know about others, but Maureen and I were waiting for them. And when she was not there, he always asked: How is my girl today?

“ Rest In Peace Jeff. You were one of the best deer hunters I've known. Also one of the best bowlers. The deer seasons at the cabin are the times I'll remember most. See you down the road Cuz. 🐾
